READ MORE These are the college football programs with the most College Football Playoff wins and appearances since the format began in 2014. READ MORE The official website of the Southeastern Conference The health of our student athletes, campus communities, fans and the general public is a constant priority for the Southeastern Conference and its member institutions. The SEC continues to monitor COVID-19 and is regularly associated with Dener institutions and public health officials related to the spread of the disease. SEC student athletes who choose not to participate in intercollegiate athletics in the fall of 2020 due to health and/or safety concerns related to COVID-19 will continue to receive their scholarships from their university and remain in a good position with their team. The SEC's Return to Activity and Medical Guidance Task Force has set COVID-19 management requirements for each SEC sport: MARCH SEC COMPETITION CANCELLED: All SEC convention and non-conference competitions starting thursday, March 12 have been canceled for the remainder of the 2019-20 sports year, including all remaining SEC championship events, due to developments related to COVID-19. In addition, all spring football games were canceled and no profit was conducted by SEC institutions. APRIL ACTIVITIES SUSPENDED: Other athletics activities, including team and individual exercises, meetings and other organized gatherings, whether voluntary or necessary, have been suspended until June 7. MAY RESUMPTION OF ATHLETICS ACTIVITIES: Volunteer athletics activities were allowed from 8 June each university will take place on the SEC campus. In June, NCAA rules allowed only Staff to monitor voluntary athletics activities on campus. In accordance with NCAA regulations, organized practices and other required physical activities remained prohibited in all sports. SEC institutions are entitled to engage in required and voluntary activities in accordance with ncaa law. JUNI PROHIBITION OF CAMPS AND CLINICS: Conference facilities are prohibited from hosting, conducting or participating in all in-person camps and coaches clinics until 31 August. JULY POSTPONED OF VOLLEYBALL, SOCCER, CROSS-COUNTRY SEASONS: The start of the volleyball, football and cross-country competition has been postponed until at least August 31, including all trade fair and non-conference competitions. NEW START ESTABLISHED FOR FOOTBALL SEASON: On July 30, the SEC launched September 26 as a new prelude to the 2020 football season to give its universities the opportunity to focus on the healthy return of their campus communities and the gradual reintroduction of athletics. The 2020 SEC football season will consist of a 10-game conference-only schedule, and the SEC Football Championship Game will be played on December 19 at Mercedes-Benz Stadium in Atlanta, scheduled for December 5. AUGUST ADJUSTED PRESEASON FOOTBALL DATES: The SEC announced on August 4 adjusted dates for preseason football activities for SEC schools with the first allowed training now scheduled for August 17. The new calendar offers student athletes more days off than the NCAA requires and fewer practices than current NCAA rules allow. MEDICAL TASK FORCE REPORT: The SEC announced its first COVID-19 management requirements for the fall athletics season on August 7, as recommended by the SEC's Return to Activity and Medical Guidance Task Force. The full SEC Return to Activity and Medical Guidance Task Force Requirements for COVID-19 Management of Fall Sports can be found here. 2020 FUSSBALL SCHEDULE: The SEC announced its revised 10-game schedule on August 17. FUSSBALL FAN GUIDELINES: The SEC announced guidelines for its 14 member schools on August 18 to set expectations to manage the health and safety of fans in preparation for the 2020 football season, pending future decisions regarding fans' permission to attend games, while the conference continues to monitor developments around the COVID-19 virus. EXPANDED CARDIAC EVALUATIONS: On August 21, the SEC clarified and expanded its previously announced COVID-19 management requirements for the fall athletics season. The SEC's Return to Activity and Medical Guidance Task Force has now clarified the cardiac evaluation described in its original report, which provides for troponin levels, single-electrocardiogram, echocardiogram a medical evaluation by a doctor. The SEC also confirmed that a third rapid diagnostic test is conducted each week near the competition for high-risk sports. NEW START DATES FOR VOLLEYBALL, SOCCER, CROSS-COUNTRY: The SEC SEC On August 27, new start dates and formats were set for the SEC cross-country, football and volleyball season, as well as the fall golf and tennis season. GAME OPERATIONS GUIDELINES: On August 28, the SEC announced a series of additional rules for playing for its 14 member schools, following the first medical protocols and fan guidelines announced in early August. The announcement addressed issues related to local staff, ticketing, on-site performances, disinfection and media operations. SEPTEMBER NEW START DATES FOR SWIMMING & REITEN: The SEC has established new start dates and formats for the SEC swimming and jumping and riding season sec on September 14. FUSSBALL COVID INTERRUPTION POLICIES: On September 18, the SEC announced guidelines and parameters for the cancellation of football matches, the rescheduling of games and the no-contest declarations for the 2020 season. CONTACT TRACING DEVICES: The SEC announced on September 22 that it is providing its 14 member institutions with state-of-the-art portable proximity devices manufactured by global technology leader KINEXON to improve COVID-19 contact tracking efforts during the 2020 football season. KINEXON SafeZone technology includes lightweight, portable devices called SafeTags that are used throughout the conference for football student athletes in team facilities, while exercises and games are used. THIRD-PARTY TESTING PROVIDER: The SEC announced on September 23 that it has selected PAE to provide COVID-19 season-ending testing services at each of the 14 SEC campuses. The conference and PAE have been working together since mid-August to implement test protocols for autumn sports. In early September, PAE, in collaboration with Premier Medical Group, deployed test teams to each campus to begin testing and all related logistics for SEC sports. NEW START DATES FOR BASKETBALL: The SEC announced on September 25 that it has set December 29 and 30 as the new starting dates for its 2020-21 basketball conference, while the start date for women's women's basketball will be 31 and 2020 as previously planned. The game plan for the men's basketball conference consists of 20 game dates that would accommodate an 18-game schedule with two open dates. The women's basketball conference schedule remains with 18 game days that match a 16-game league schedule. NOVEMBER DECEMBER SEC member institutions will continue to provide their student athletes with care and support to meet needs in areas such as academics, medical care, mental health and wellness, nutrition and housing as needed. The SEC supports the use of the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (www.cdc.gov) website as a source of information for the advisory measures and updates of the and to seek medical advice from qualified medical professionals where necessary and appropriate.
